

Obtaining credit for the tutorial

In order to pass the tutorial you must obtain at least 5 points every week and an average of at least 7 points/week over the course of the semester. Points can be obtained in following ways:

- Every week there will be a small quiz based on the material covered in the lecture before the tutorial. You can obtain up to 10 points each week this way.
- Points are awarded for participation during the tutorial. You can earn points by asking questions, presenting your solutions to problems, discussing your attempts at solving a problem, etc. You can obtain up to 5 points each week this week.
